March 10, 2021	A statement of the Authority's commitment to social equity	Board of Directors

The Tri-Valley – San Joaquin Valley Regional Rail Authority (Valley Link) is committed to ensuring that no person is excluded from participation in, nor denied the benefits of, its programs, activities or services on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or disability.

Valley Link will ensure that its programs, policies and activities comply with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, and Department of Transportation regulations.

Any person who believes they have been discriminated against with respect to Valley Link's programs, activities, services, or other transit related benefits, may file a written complaint within 180 days of the alleged incident. Complaint forms are available at Valley Link Administration, 1362 Rutan Court, Suite 100, Livermore, CA, 94551; and on the web at www.valleylinkrail.com. You also may file a complaint of discrimination based on race, color or national origin with the Federal Transit Administration through its Office of Civil Rights, Title VI Program Coordinator, East Building, 5th floor-TCR, 1200 New Jersey Ave., SE, Washington DC 20590.
